

The New York Times
New Jersey

CALENDAR

From Soup to Tea

On Sunday at 2 p.m. there will be a free demonstration of how to cook herbal soups at Wave Hill, West 249th Street and Independence Avenue in Riverdale, the Bronx. On Feb. 6 at 2 p.m. there will be a free lecture about different kinds of tea. For information and directions: (718) 549-3200 or www.wavehill.org.

New Jersey Eats

Several dozen restaurants in Hudson County, New Jersey, will offer specials weekdays from Monday through Feb. 4. Three-course lunches will be $15.05 and dinners $30.05. For a list of participating restaurants: www.hudsonrestaurantweek.com.

Sabbath Dinner

A class in preparing a Jewish sabbath dinner, with most of the cooking done in advance, will be given on Jan. 26 from 10 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. at the Jewish Community Center, 334 Amsterdam Avenue (76th Street). The cost is $65 for members, $75 for nonmembers: (646) 505-5708 or www.jccmanhattan.org.

Chinatown Eats

To preview Chinese New Year, which starts on Feb. 9, three snacking tours of Chinatown will be held on Jan. 29 at noon, 2 and 4 p.m. Each tour will end with an optional meal in a Chinese restaurant for $10 including tax and tip. The tours, run by Adventure on a Shoestring, cost $5 a person. Reservations: (212) 65-2663.

FLORENCE FABRICANT